Problem Statement:-

As cyber threats continue to evolve and become more sophisticated, individuals, businesses, and governments struggle to effectively protect sensitive data and critical infrastructure. This project addresses the challenge of understanding and combating these growing cybersecurity risks, focusing on identifying common threats and evaluating the effectiveness of current security solutions in the digital age.